2018-2019 High School Student Internship

General Information

Would you like to practice your writing skills, share the “inside scoop” on your school, and add a fun community activity to your resume and college applications? Suburban Newspapers, Inc. is looking for four local high school students who are interested in news media. One student from each local high school (Benbrook Middle-High School, Brewer High School, Castleberry High School and Western Hills High School) will be selected to contribute an original 250-word essay each month, October 2018 through May 2019, about what’s going at their school.

Agreement

By submitting an application, student agrees to write and submit an original essay by deadline each month for the full duration of the internship. Students will be expected to follow the same guidelines as our regular freelance contributors: submit your best writing, use good grammar and meet deadlines. Suburban Newspapers editors will provide students with writing feedback, answer questions and publish their stories in the local city newspaper.

Application Form

Please complete the following information and submit along with your essay to suburbannews@sbcglobal.net. Essays should be approximately 250 words on any topic related to your high school. Essays will be read by newspaper staff and evaluated on creativity and newsworthiness. Deadline for application submission is Thursday, Sept. 20 and selected students will be contacted by Sunday, Sept. 30. Application essays will serve as the first published article in October.
