CISD Pre-Kindergarten and Kindergarten Registration

Parents may begin to pre-register both Pre-K and Kindergarten students who are new to CISD for the 2021-2022 school year. This pre-registration is very important for new students and is the beginning of the registration process. Registrations will be finalized in July 2021, before the school year begins.

Pre-Kindergarten Students

The CISD Pre-K program is free and there is a place for every student. New this year, CISD Pre-K has open enrollment and is accepting all students who are 4 years of age on or before Sept. 1, 2021, whether they live in CISD or reside outside the district. Even if your child does not meet the federal qualifying guidelines for a Pre-K program, he or she can still attend Pre-K in Castleberry ISD.

To qualify for Pre-K under federal guidelines, a child must be educationally disadvantaged (eligible for free or reduced lunch), unable to speak and comprehend the English language, homeless, the child of an active-duty member of the armed forces of the United States or a member of the armed forces who was injured or killed while serving on active duty, is or ever has been in foster care, or the child of a person eligible for the Star of Texas Award program.

For more information on Pre-K registration and to begin the registration process, click here.

Kindergarten Students

Children enrolling in Kindergarten must be 5 years old on or before Sept. 1, 2021. The pre-registration process for students who will be in Kindergarten and are new to Castleberry ISD begins April 1, 2021, and the registration process will be finalized in July 2021. Students who qualify to attend CISD Kindergarten but live outside the district may apply for an Out-of-District Transfer to be considered for this program.

For more information on Kindergarten registration and to begin the registration process, click here.

Required Documents for Pre-Registration

The following items are needed to register students for both Pre-K and Kindergarten: Parent ID, certified copy of student's birth certificate, student's social security card, valid immunization record, current utility bill or copy of a current lease agreement dated within the last three months, and Proof of income, military status, foster care, or statement of homeless living status, if applicable.

Out of District Transfers Apply Now

Castleberry ISD is now accepting applications for Out of District students in grades Pre-kindergarten through 12th grade. Applications will be accepted through June 30, 2021.

Tarrant Area Food Bank's Mega Mobile Markets to Continue Distributing Food at Herman Clark Stadium

City Council Meetings

The Tarrant Area Food Bank (TAFB) has extended their agreement with Fort Worth ISD to hold Mega Mobile Markets at Herman Clark Stadium through the month of August. This will allow Tarrant area families to continually receive food assistance from this location, one of TAFB's most consistent distribution locations of the past year.

The City Council of River Oaks meets on the second and fourth Tuesday night of each month.

Agendas for the meetings are available as soon as they are posted on the City's website.

Minutes of each meeting will also be available once they are completed and posted.

Mega Mobile Markets are designed to serve all residents of the Tarrant area who are in need of food assistance, as well as anyone whose access to nutritious food has been affected by hardships, such as the COVID-19 pandemic.

TAFB will hold the Mega Mobile Markets on the following Fridays, from 9 a.m. to noon at Herman Clark Stadium-5201 CA Roberson Blvd, Fort Worth, TX 76119 on the following dates: June 25, July 2, July 9, July 16, July 23, July 30, Aug. 6, Aug. 13, Aug. 20 and Aug. 27.

Food insecurity is still an issue that many families in the Tarrant area are facing. During the pandemic, TAFB saw a 60 percent increase in the number of families who relied on food bank services for the first time. Because of this, many families are still recovering from the effects of COVID-19.

American Philosopher, Sidney Mezes by Dr. Ken Bridges

The early 1900s was a formative time for education in Texas. Sidney Mezes, a one-time president of the University of Texas, rose to the forefront to serve as such a leader as well as a diplomat and a thinker. In the process, the son of a pioneer gold prospector in California became one of the most respected philosophers in the nation and a leader in Texas education.

Sidney Edward Mezes was born in September 1863 in Belmont, California, then a tiny village nestled between San Francisco and San Jose in the years after the Gold Rush. His parents were both immigrants, with his father having arrived from Spain and his mother from Italy. His father, Simon M. Mezes, was an attorney who arrived with the early wave of gold prospectors and other fortune-seekers.

His father had helped several Spanish families in the San Francisco area keep the claims on their lands as pressure from settlers and miners as well as various con artists sought to thrust them off their property. In the process, Mezes was able to buy some of this land and set it aside to form what became Redwood City, the county seat of San Mateo County in the 1850s, and for whom a city park is named. This helped provide a comfortable childhood for the future scholar, which included trips to Europe.

He graduated from what was then the University of California in 1884 (now the University of California at Berkeley) with a degree in engineering. After his father's death that year, Mezes took a different path and began studying philosophy. He enrolled at Harvard University in 1889, receiving a second bachelors degree in 1890 and a masters degree in philosophy in 1891. While he was completing his doctorate through Harvard, he spent the 1892-93 school year teaching philosophy at Bryn Mawr College in Pennsylvania. After finishing his Ph.D. in 1893, he spent a year teaching at the University of Chicago.

He was offered an adjunct teaching position at the University of Texas in 1894. In 1898, he took a look at ideas and perceptions of God with The Conception of God. He took on questions of spirituality and the existence of God. At the same time, he touched on ideas of time, memory, and reality. Mezes argued that God lives in an eternal state of the present, with all things happening in one everlasting moment and that time as mortal men understand it, is meaningless to God. "Time is no reality; things seem past and future, and, in a sense, non-existent to us, but in fact are just as genuinely real as the present is," Mezes wrote. "Every reality is eternally real, pastness and futurity are merely illusions."

He became a full-time professor in 1898. In 1901, he wrote an influential work on ethics, titled "Ethics, Descriptive and Explanatory." He earned a promotion to dean in 1902, serving as a philosophy professor simultaneously.

In 1908, Mezes was appointed president of the university. He was the fifth person to hold the position. He was widely respected for his work as a scholar and administrator. The college expanded steadily. He added a new library and a new Department of Economic Geology. Within five years, enrollment expanded 20 percent, from 2,500 students to 3,000.

In 1913, the newly-inaugurated President Woodrow Wilson asked him to become U.S. education commissioner, but he declined. Instead, Mezes decided to take a new position as the fourth president of the City College of New York. He assumed his new post in 1914. He left the university on good terms, and the board of regents asked him his opinions on the direction of the university. He published this as "The Future of the University of Texas in 1914," which helped form a blueprint for expansion.

The same spirit of innovation he brought to UT he brought to CCNY. Here, the college added schools of civil administration, business, education, and engineering, becoming a respected institution in New York.

At the request of Wilson, Mezes became the director of a committee of scholars informally called "The Inquiry" to investigate the causes of the war and to identify and evaluate possible solution to prevent a future war. These suggestions were later formulated into Wilson's Fourteen Points, which he outlined in a speech in January 1918. At the end of the war, Mezes served as a diplomat as part of the American delegation negotiating the Treaty of Versailles, the shape of the peace to come. He wrote a section from a 1921 series of recollections titled What Really Happened at Paris.

By the mid-1920s, Mezes began experiencing serious health problems. The situation became so bad that he retired as the CCNY president in 1927 at the age of 64, having seen enrollment quadruple from 5,200 to more than 20,000. He returned to California; and when his health permitted, he traveled to Europe and different parts of the U. S. The University of Texas honored him with the special title of president emeritus in 1929. He died at his home in Pasadena, California, in 1931.

The university remembered his many contributions and dedicated a new building in his memory in 1953. Mezes Hall today is a multi-use classroom building used by various departments and organizations on campus, including the Texas Politics Project, the Spanish Department, the Government Department, and the European Studies Department.

Battlefront at Home... Saluting our Veterans and First Responders is the theme of this year's Tarrant County Veterans Day Parade to step off on Thursday, Nov. 11, at 11 a.m.

Participants will form up in the Fort Worth Panther Island Pavilion parking lot, march down North Forest Park Blvd. along the Clear Fork of the Trinity River and return.

Although months away, The Tarrant County Veterans Council is busy planning for the special event.

A new parade website has launched, fw2021vetsdayparade.org and the parade committee is soliciting support from individuals and organizations across North Texas for this year's celebration.

Fort Worth's annual Veterans Day parade began as an armistice procession through downtown in 1919 to honor those who had fought in World War I.

In 1945, World War II veteran Raymond Weeks from Birmingham, Ala., sought to expand Armistice Day to salute all veterans.

Weeks led a delegation to Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, who supported the idea of a national Veterans Day. Weeks led the first celebration in 1947 and annually until his death in 1985.

The WARM Place, a Grief Support Center For Children

How to Refer a Family to The WARM Place:

Children who are referred to The WARM Place may have experienced the death loss of: a parent, a sibling, a grandparent, an aunt, uncle, cousin, a close friend or a classmate.

Steps to follow:

- The legal guardian of the child/children contacts The WARM Place. Call any time after the death loss to schedule an intake/interview appointment.

- Families can call any time during office hours (8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) if they need to talk to someone. The family comes to The WARM Place for an in-take/interview. The intake/interview is during the day and lasts about 1-1/2 to 2 hours. All family members, including children and legal guardian(s), must be present at the intake.

The Objective of the Interview:

The family can share their death loss experience. The tour of the facility alleviates possible fears of coming to The WARM Place. The intake/interview is conducted by a counselor and time is spent with adult(s) and children separately. The family is assigned a group night based on who has died in the child's life.

Support groups for children offered at The WARM Place are:

- Parent loss — includes step-parent
- Sibling loss — biological or step-sibling
- Grandparent loss — cousin, aunt, uncle, friend, or any other significant death loss

Each night the support groups meet, the children are divided by age: children, ages 5 to 8; preteens, ages 9 to 12 and teenagers, ages 13 to 18. The guardian(s) must attend with the children.

General Information:

Groups meet every other week. Families attend The WARM Place for as long as it is necessary to resolve death loss issues.

Additional groups are provided for Young Adults, ages 19 to 25. Groups are available for preschoolers, ages 3- 1/2 to 5.

Groups are led by facilitators who have had extensive training in the grief process and group dynamics.

There is never a fee for families to participate in The WARM Place program, located at 809 Lipscomb St. Call 817-870-2272, email to info@thewarmplace.org, or go to their website: www.thewarmplace.org for more information.

10 Refreshed Etiquette Tips for Today's Wedding Attendees

Even before the pandemic, wedding etiquette was tricky. After a year like no other, the dos and don'ts around "I do's" and being a good guest have become even more complicated.

Some protocols remain true. Do RSVP quickly. Don't be late to the main event. Others are less clear - Should you send a gift for virtual ceremonies? What's the best way to greet others at in-person events? Here are some tips to help you out:

1. Put a stamp on it: Even if the invite says you have months to respond, it's best to reply within one week. Waiting too long is a sign you are hesitant.

2. Dress to impress: Let the suggested attire on the invitation or couple's website be your guide. Still unclear? Reach out to the hosts. As a general rule, dress up rather than down to show you put thought into the event. Finally, don't wear white. It's reserved for the bride.

3. Honor air hugs: Pay attention to non-verbal cues. If someone reaches out for a handshake, hug or fist-bump, reciprocate if well you feel comfortable. If you're not ready for physical contact, offer another friendly gesture, such as a heartfelt nod.

4. Know posting protocol: Unless the couple guides you otherwise, wait to post the first photos on social media. If they encourage you to post at will, it's A-OK to share your snaps. Use provided hashtags and remember that the official wedding photographer and videographer get first dibs on great shots.

5. Stash your smartphone: Use your phone to take photos, but once you're done, tuck it away. It's potentially distracting for you and off-putting for others.

6. Get accustomed with other customs: Before attending a wedding incorporating cultural customs unfamiliar to you, do some pre-nuptial prep.

7. Connect with courtesy. If staying at a hotel with friends and family, keep courtesy top-of-mind. Keep the volume down and the fun contained to your personal space.

8. Duck debate: Conversation could possibly steer to hot topics, such as politics, religion and vaccines. To maintain a light-hearted atmosphere and to respect the newlyweds, try to avoid heated debates.

9. Give comfortably: The first etiquette rule: send a gift, even if you can't make the event. The second: don't feel pressured to give more than is comfortable. Gone are the days when guests are expected to cover their per-head cost. Not sure what's appropriate? Follow the registry. Cash and checks are great alternatives as

10. Get glam for the cam: Attending virtually? Grab the suit instead of sweats. Even if it's virtual, a wedding is a celebration and time to reconnect.
