Community Members and Visitors Enjoy the Solar Eclipse

The solar eclipse was an amazing phenomenon witnessed by several individuals in our hometown. The anticipation I observed from those gathered to watch was completely overwhelming!

As the moon moved into place, the sun was totally eclipsed and the skies went dark! The temperature dropped, locusts were chirping - and then the applause of spectators that participated in this spectacular event was amazing! At different locations were food trucks, shaved ice, free popcorn and eclipse glasses.

Brewer Track and Field Athletes Medal at District Meet

The Brewer track and field team had a strong showing at the district meet last weekend, and girl's coach Kathi Olson said she has a number of athletes moving onto the area meet.

The Lady Bears finished third overall as a team at the district meet and Olson said it was a good overall effort.

"We had a great two days at District," Olson said. "The team did a great job, and we advanced to the Area meet in eight events."

Ki Rendon took first in the 3200 meters (10:56.80), first in the 1600 meters (4:59.51), and on a relay.

Chania Price also had a great meet, taking home five medals in five events, including first in High Jump (5-2), third in the Triple Jump (36-3.5), first in 400m (58.71), and two relays.

The girls 4x400 meter relay team placed second overall with a time of 4:01.67 (less than a second from first place— members are Aaliyah Williams, Rendon, Kailee Carr, and Price).

The girls 4x200 meter relay finished second overall with a time of 1:44.59— team members are Price, Isabella Sanchez, Mya Young, and La'Niya Gunn-Gonzalez).

Tayla Fattori also placed third in the Discus (96-9).

Brewer will compete in the area meet this coming weekend, and Olson said she has one major goal for the competition.

"The objective is to advance to Region in every event we are competing in," Olson said. "Our district, (continued on page 3)

Take Me Home Project Reunites Lost Loved Ones

The White Settlement Police Department has an innovative program called the Take Me Home Project. This initiative will help both children and adults who have Autism or other developmental disabilities, including adults with diminished intellectual abilities or Alzheimer's. This new database will allow police officers to search by name or physical description when responding to calls of found children or adults who cannot readily identify themselves.

Once the matched record has been located, police officers will have important information, such as emergency contacts and how to appropriately assist them. This will further speed up the reunification process.

The Take Me Home Project is free to the community. The process to register someone is fast and easy. Applications are available at the White Settlement Police Department, located at 8900 Clifford Street, White Settlement, TX, 76108.

Once an application is completed, the person registered will have their digital photograph taken and the information from the application is transferred into a specialized database.

All officers will have easy access to this information and the availability to query the database, should a situation arise while they are on patrol or responding to a call.

Texas History Minute

Erastus “Deaf” Smith by Dr. Ken Bridges

Erastus “Deaf” Smith was perhaps one of the most unique figures to emerge from the early years of Texas History. In spite of a nearly total hearing loss, “Deaf” Smith still served Texas with courage and distinction. While he may not have been able to hear, Texas listened closely to what he had to say.

Smith was born in Dutchess County, New York, about 80 miles north of New York City. His parents, Chilaib and Mary Smith, were farmers. In 1799, they moved to Natchez in the Mississippi Territory in pursuit of the new lands available.

According to reports, Smith lost nearly all of his hearing due to an unspecified illness he suffered as a child. In the years before vaccines and antibiotics, such tragedies were not unusual and any of a number of diseases curable with modern medicine could have been responsible. Nevertheless, his vision and keen sense of discernment remained intact, and Smith remained determined not to let this loss discourage him in any way.

He briefly visited Texas in 1817 before returning to Mississippi. In 1821, he returned to Texas and settled in San Antonio where he married a local widow. Together, they had four children. In 1825, he became one of the first settlers in the community of Gonzales, the first American settlement in Texas west of the Colorado River.

In 1835, when Mexican Gen. Martin Perfecto de Cos briefly seized control of San Antonio, they blocked Smith, who had been away for some time, from seeing his family.

At the age of 48, he joined the forces of Stephen F. Austin in an attempt to break the siege and served as a scout. Smith’s careful observation revealed that Cos did not have the resources to survive a long siege. Half-starved, Cos and his army surrendered in December.

Smith stayed in San Antonio to help with the defense of the city while his wife and children fled to nearby Columbia. Mexican forces returned the next February. After Col. William Barret Travis wrote his now-famous appeal to Texans and the world for aid, he sent Smith with the letter to Gen. Sam Houston, commander of all Texas forces. Houston sent Smith back to the Alamo to learn of its fate, only to return with the news of its fall and the slaughter of its defenders.

Houston promoted Smith to the rank of captain and continued to use him for reconnaissance while Texas forces pulled back toward San Jacinto. Smith captured a number of Mexican spies and messengers and as the battle at San Jacinto approached and cut down a wooden bridge with an ax to cut off a possible retreat by Mexican forces. After the battle in April, Smith was entrusted with delivering the orders of the surrendering Gen. Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna to all remaining Mexican forces to leave Texas.

Smith returned to military service briefly in 1837 as a Ranger to deflect Mexican forces attempting to enter Texas at Laredo. Shortly afterward, Smith moved to Richmond, just west of modern-day Houston. His time here would not last long. In November, he contracted a sudden illness and died. He was only 50 years old.

The Telegraph and Texas Register newspaper in Houston revered his life upon the news of his death, “This singular individual was one whose name bears with it more respect than sounding titles. Major, Colonel, General, sink into insignificance before the simple name of “Deaf Smith.””

The Republic of Texas later put his image on the Texas $5 bill. In 1876, the state legislature named Deaf Smith County in the Panhandle in memory of the revered hero of the Texas Revolution.
