Fall Kid Fish Saturday

The City of White Settlement will host a fall free kid fish from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Oct. 15 at the Veterans Park fishing pier, located at 8901 Clifford Street in White Settlement.

The first 30 kids that are checked in at the table on site will get a t-shirt. A limited number of fishing poles will be available for those who do not have one but it is on a first-come, first-serve basis, or guest can bring their own. Child must register in order to record catch and/or receive an award. Parents may not fish for a child but can assist for the 1 to 3 year olds.

Bears to Host South Hills Friday Night at Home photos by Krystal Arnold

The Brewer Bears took on The Colony Cougars at Tommy Briggs Stadium Oct. 7.

The Brewer football team came up short against The Colony on Friday night in a game that was tied at 7 until the fourth quarter.

The Bears lost 30-7, and coach Jason Wheeler said that it was not for a lack of effort.

"We had a few opportunities in the first half to pull away and didn't capitalize on them," Wheeler said. "We had two mistakes in the first half that, one put us out of field goal range and the other where we gave up a turnover going into the end zone. It should have been 17-7 going into the half time." Hello Fellow District 99 Residents,

My name is Mimi Coffey and I am running to be your State Representative. I have spent most of my entire life in District 99. I have raised my 4 children here. As a defense attorney of 27 years, I am used to fighting uphill battles and negotiating. I will fight hard for the needs of our northwest Tarrant County residents.

Our property taxes are too high. Women's reproductive rights have been taken away. Our public schools are in a crisis with a shortage of teachers. It is getting harder for the majority of northwest Texans to make ends meet with rising costs. As a small business owner of 22 years, I know what it takes to run a successful business and take care of your people. The pandemic has taught us that to survive we must embrace change. I am ready to serve both Democrats and Republicans alike. District 99 is military and defense industry heavy. I understand and respect this as my father served in the Army and retired from Lockheed-Martin (General Dynamics). I have the utmost respect for our incumbent representative and if elected, plan to continue his tradition of excellent service to the community.

I invite you to visit my website, mimicoffeyfordistrict99.com for more information. I'm asking for your vote so that we can put PEOPLE OVER POLITICS. Feel free to text or call me direct at 817-205-4861.

Meals On Wheels of Tarrant County Urgently Needs Volunteers

Meals On Wheels of Tarrant County desperately needs meal-delivery volunteers, specifically on Fort Worth's Eastside and Handley-Woodhaven area. Over the last several weeks, there has been a steady increase in the number of clients in this area. They're asking anyone that lives in these neighborhoods or any surrounding areas to please contact them to volunteer.

"Volunteers are the backbone of what we do," said Carla Jutson, President & CEO. "Not only do they deliver nutritious meals and friendly smiles, but they also provide daily safety checks, ensuring that our clients are safe in this heat. Their service is more important now than ever!"

Volunteering takes just one hour, one day a week, Monday through Friday. There are open routes throughout Tarrant County, however the greatest need is in East Fort Worth.

For more information or to sign up to volunteer in Tarrant County, visit mealsonwheels.org or call 817-258-6428.

Brewer had three fumbles in the game that Wheeler said “really hurt us,” and added that he was really proud of how the Bears’ defense responded.

“I can’t say enough about the way our defense has played,” Wheeler said. “We’ve struggled offensively, but it is not for lack of effort. We have young players and have had some injuries, and it has been hard to find consistency on offense this year. But our defense has kept us in the games.”

Brewer will host South Hills at 7 p.m. tomorrow evening, and Wheeler said his team will need to focus on execution.

“The last time we played those guys they were fired up and ready to play, and I believe they will be again,” Wheeler said. “I don’t care who we step on the field against. We’re going to have to be prepared and ready to play.”

Tire Recycle Event for White Settlement Residents Only - Nov. 5

The City of White Settlement will host a Resident Tire Recycle Event on Saturday, Nov. 5 from 9 to 11 a.m. at the municipal parking lot located at 8211 White Settlement Rd.

White Settlement residents may bring four tires (no rims) to be disposed of free of charge. Participants must have a White Settlement water bill, only four tires per car load, and no semi or trailer or tractor tires will be permitted.

Limited space is available.

For questions, call 817-246-5012, ext 859.

On the court, the Brewer volleyball team picked up its second straight district victory on Friday night, defeating Wichita Falls Rider by a score of 3-2.

Coach Jill Barkey said she is proud of the way her team is stepping up.

“It was a dog fight,” Barkey said. “Or Bear fight, I should say. I was proud of that victory. It took a lot of mental fortitude. Kylie Intfen and Torrie Frye did an outstanding job blocking and Ashlynn Gehring and KP Pospech came in clutch with court smarts and excellent ball placement!”

This makes two straight district victories for Brewer, and Barkey said there is a positive atmosphere in the locker room as her team gears up for Saginaw tomorrow night.

“I hope the last two wins really give us the momentum we need to get some more wins under our belt,” Barkey said. “It’s a tough district for sure. But I know we can play with all of them. I think Saginaw better not count us out! We’re hungry and ready to roll.”

On the trails, Brewer hosted a home meet this past weekend, and coach Kathi Olson said it was a good warm up for the district meet this coming weekend.

“We had great weather and competition for our home meet yesterday,” Olson said on Saturday. “It’s a tough course that gets Region I teams ready for Lubbock. All district teams competed except for Aledo in the meet, providing a pre-district preview.”

Ki Rendon placed fourth overall followed by Aolani Woldai who placed 12th.

Lus Morales finished in 19th place, Cora Carr in 20th place, and Kailee Carr in 22nd.

The team finished third overall.

Olson said the goals for district are pretty straightforward.

“It’s going to be a great race,” Olson said. “All seven schools have good teams vying for one of the three team spots to advance to the Region I meet in Lubbock on Oct. 24 and 25. Our expectations are to place in the top three to advance to region.”

City of White Settlement Received $1.2 Million Grant to Support Naval Air Station - Joint Reserve Base Improve Drainage and Prevent Flooding

The U.S. Department of Defense Office of Local Defense Community Cooperation awarded the City of White Settlement $1,266,555 on Friday, Sept. 30 in support of the Naval Air Station – Joint Reserve Base to undertake a large scale project to construct new drainage improvements. This new project is designed to prevent flooding in existing residential areas in the northern part of the city, adjacent to the Texas National Guard facility, along the corridor of Air Force Plant #4 (Lockheed Martin Aeronautics) and the nearby Navy installation, including essential active runways for military aircraft. The project will cost an estimated $1,809,365 to complete the needed infrastructure improvements.

Many community partners were critical in working with the City of White Settlement to undertake this important project including the City of Fort Worth, North Central Texas Council of Governments, NAS-JRB Fort Worth, Texas National Guard, Department of Defense, United States Army, United State Navy, and United States Air Force. The City of White Settlement was one of only 19 jurisdictions competitively awarded from across the nation.

“We are excited about the continued collaboration and strong partnership with our military and defense community, which mutually benefits our hometown and residents,” said City Manager Jeffrey James. “These improvements will better protect our residential and industrial properties from flooding, while also safeguarding property and ensuring continuity of operations with the Texas National Guard Armory, Lockheed Martin, and the vital military base. White Settlement will continue to be a vocal supporter of our national defense industries and staunch advocate for the Naval Air Station and Air Force Plant #4.”

“We have a great relationship with the City of White Settlement, North Central Texas Council of Governments, and surrounding communities to protect military assets and safeguard our operational commands, vital to national defense,” said Captain Mark McLean, Commanding Officer, NAS JRB Fort Worth. “We look forward to working together to find sustainable, regional solutions to address these flooding issues.”

“The Defense Community Infrastructure Pilot Program is critical in delivering public infrastructure and services that not only benefit our local installations, but help to support our service members, their families, and the Department’s mission while building key partnerships and resiliency at the state and local level,” said Dr. William A. LaPlante, Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition and Sustainment.

According to the State of Texas, Office of the Governor’s 2021 Military Value Task Force report, the economic impact of the base and adjacent aircraft production facility contributed $3.7 billion to the Texas economy in 2019 and provided employment for 6,616 personnel with a gross domestic product of $2.3 billion and a disposable personal income of $1.3 billion. Lockheed Martin’s Aeronautics business area, headquartered at Air Force Plant 4, has more than 18,000 employees here producing fifth-generation fighter jets with an annual payroll of about $2 billion.

The City of White Settlement has been working with community partners through a regional solution approach to address flooding along the arms of the Farmers Branch Creek that has caused significant flooding issues and damages in the immediate area for decades.

NCTCOG to Offer Online Public Input Opportunity

Residents will have a chance to comment on regional transportation and air quality planning activities as the North Central Texas Council of Governments (NCTCOG) opens an online public input opportunity.

Information on car care awareness and modifications to the Unified Planning Work Program (UPWP) will be posted at www.publicinput.com/nctcogOct22, where North Texans can provide comments until Tuesday, Nov. 8.

October is Fall Car Care Month, and NCTCOG invites residents to ensure their vehicles are properly taken care of and are contributing to the regional air quality solution. More information about car care awareness can be found at www.ntxcarcare.org.

The UPWP provides a summary of transportation and air quality planning activities that will be conducted in the 12-county Dallas-Fort Worth area. Proposed modifications for the UPWP will be posted online for review and comment.

NCTCOG will also highlight several resources available as part of the October public input opportunity. Resources for the Regional Smoking Vehicle Program (RSVP) can be found at www.smokingvehicle.net, and vehicle incentive and funding opportunities are available at www.nctcog.org/aqfunding.

NCTCOG is also accepting public input through Map Your Experience, an online mapping tool used to guide transportation planning efforts. To explore Map Your Experience, visit www.nctcog.org/mapyourexperience.

For special accommodations due to a disability or for language interpretation, contact Jackie Castillo at 817-695-9255 or jcastillo@nctcog.org at least 72 hours prior to the meeting.

To submit comments and questions to NCTCOG, email nctcogoct22@publicinput.com or visit publicinput.com/nctcogOct22.

American Legion to Host Harley-Ween Event Oct. 29

More and more families are looking for a safe place to trick-or-treat, even when you live in a small town with a big backyard like Benbrook. The Paul Mansir American Legion Post 297 located at 8201 Old Benbrook Rd. in Benbrook is answering the call by providing “a safe place to trick-or-treat” for all of the children in the community and beyond.

“Harley-Ween” is so-named because the Riders of American Legion Post 297 are hosting the event. They will be dressed up in costumes, with their motorcycle saddlebags stuffed full of candy, and will provide free hot dogs and punch. Children and families can stop by, do a little trick-or-treating then rest, relax, and chat a bit with friends and family while enjoying a light dinner.

“We started doing this event during COVID, because so many other places weren't able to host events that usually took place inside. We have a nice outdoor venue, with horseshoe pits, and a great green yard for the kids to come and run around. They get to see the motorcycles, walk right up to them even, chat with veterans, and have a great time with family and friends,” says Rachel Rogstad, Road Captain for the American Legion Post 297 Riders. She mentions that in years past, many kids have marveled at the motorcycles, and really seem to enjoy being there.

The American Legion is a not-for-profit veteran organization, dedicated to serving all those who have served, as well as the community that supports them. The American Legion is America's largest veterans service organization, and works tirelessly every day to support and serve our active and retired military personnel. If you are interested in learning more about the American Legion, you can visit legion.org. Former Governor of Texas, John Ireland by Dr. Ken Bridges

John Ireland lost more political races than he won, but he had an important role in state history. He rose from an impoverished background to become a Civil War officer, judge, and governor. Along the way, he helped create two icons of Texas: the University of Texas and the State Capitol.

John Ireland was born on New Years Day 1827 in rural central Kentucky. His parents were Irish immigrants and farmers. He grew up working hard but had little formal education, as very little education was available. He was seen as reliable and was appointed deputy sheriff of Hart County in 1845 at age 18.

Ireland developed a fascination with the law and began studying it at age 24 by apprenticing himself to a local attorney. He was admitted to the bar later in 1851. The next year, he moved to Texas for a fresh start and an opportunity to establish his own law practice. He settled in the town of Seguin where he soon became an important figure in the community. Ireland served as mayor of Seguin briefly in 1858.

Ireland had fought for secession and participated in the 1861 secession convention. After Texas pulled out of the Union, Ireland immediately enlisted as a private in the Confederate Army. He saw little action during the Civil War as his assignments kept him within the state, patrolling the coast and the borders. Nevertheless, he dramatically rose through the ranks, ending the war as a lieutenant colonel.

The chaos of Reconstruction politics swept up Ireland. In 1866, he was part of the state constitutional convention. Shortly afterward, he was elected judge. However, Texas and many other southern states were placed under martial law in 1867 for failing to uphold the rights for freedmen and impeding Reconstruction. Ireland and many other politicians were thrust from office.

As Reconstruction was winding down, Ireland re-entered politics and was elected to the state legislature In 1872. While serving in the legislature, Ireland was the sponsor for the legislation that allowed the University of Texas to finally become a reality. The creation of the university was an effort shared by many over a long period of time. He lost a race for U.S. Senate in 1874, but in 1875, he was appointed to briefly serve as an appellate judge.

In 1878, Ireland challenged Congressman Gustav Schleicher for the Sixth District congressional seat, which then included the San Antonio area. Schleicher, a German immigrant and businessman, faced a formidable challenger in Ireland. He was able to win his second term, but he died just months after his victory, in January 1879. Ireland chose not to run in the special election to fill the remainder of the term, a race ultimately won by attorney Christopher Upson.

In 1882, he won the election easily to become the state’s 18th governor. As governor, he pushed for property taxes and faced the Fence Cutting Wars. With the 1874 invention of barbed wire, large ranchers started fencing in their properties, blocking in small farms and ranches. In response, fences began getting cut, and violence erupted on the frontier. Ireland sent in the Texas Rangers to maintain order and pushed legislation in 1884 to give the Rangers special powers in these cases.

The other major issue of his administration was construction of the new State Capitol. Fire destroyed the old Capitol in 1881. Money had been appropriated for a new building, and construction started after Ireland’s 1884 re-election. The distinctive pink granite look of the State Capitol is due in part to Ireland. He insisted on Texas limestone instead of importing limestone from Indiana. After using this stone to lay the foundation, iron particles in the stone rusted and discolored the stone. Learning of the problem, owners of Granite Mountain near Marble Falls in Burnet County approached Ireland with a solution. They owners donated the pink granite to complete the building, an offer Ireland happily accepted. The new State Capitol was formally dedicated in April 1888.

He chose not to run for a third term in 1886 and instead ran for the U.S. Senate. He challenged incumbent Sen. Samuel B. Maxey. At that time, the state legislature still elected Senators rather than the voters. Legislators rejected both Gov. Ireland and Sen. Maxey in favor of veteran Congressman John H. Reagan. Ireland never ran for election again.

After Ireland finished his terms as governor in January 1887, he quietly resumed his law practice in Seguin, where he remained a respected figure. He had made a tidy profit in the stock market over the years, but this was all wiped out in the Panic of 1893, a deep economic depression that crushed stocks and left millions unemployed nationally.

John Ireland died deeply in debt in 1896 at the age of 69.
