Hello Fellow District 99 Residents,

My name is Mimi Coffey and I am running to be your State Representative. I have spent most of my entire life in District 99. I have raised my 4 children here. As a defense attorney of 27 years, I am used to fighting uphill battles and negotiating. I will fight hard for the needs of our northwest Tarrant County residents.

Our property taxes are too high. Women's reproductive rights have been taken away. Our public schools are in a crisis with a shortage of teachers. It is getting harder for the majority of northwest Texans to make ends meet with rising costs. As a small business owner of 22 years, I know what it takes to run a successful business and take care of your people. The pandemic has taught us that to survive we must embrace change. I am ready to serve both Democrats and Republicans alike. District 99 is military and defense industry heavy. I understand and respect this as my father served in the Army and retired from Lockheed-Martin (General Dynamics). I have the utmost respect for our incumbent representative and if elected, plan to continue his tradition of excellent service to the community.

I invite you to visit my website, mimicoffeyfordistrict99.com for more information. I'm asking for your vote so that we can put PEOPLE OVER POLITICS. Feel free to text or call me direct at 817-205-4861.

New Water and Sewer Rates

The new water and sewer rates approved by the City Council in August have gone into effect this month and will be reflected on your October utility bill.

The water and sewer rates were raised by 5 percent and this was the first rate increase in three years.

The reason for the rate increase was to keep pace with rate increases imposed on the City by Fort Worth (the City buys over 80 percent of its water from Fort Worth) and to keep up with increasing maintenance costs.

For average residential water users, the rate increase will cause bills to go up around $20 a year, which breaks down to an increase of $1.67 per month.

For average residential sewage users, the rate increase will cause bills to go up around $15.37 a year, which breaks down to an increase of $1.28 per month.

In total, average residential water and sewer users should expect to see a total increase on their utility bill of around $36 annually, which breaks down to an increase of $3 per month.

Brewer Topples Fort Worth South Hills

The Brewer football team kept their playoff hopes alive on Friday night with a 77-7 victory over Fort Worth South Hills.

The Bears were firing on all cylinders against South Hills, as coach Jason Wheeler said Brewer played well in all three facets of the game.

"We had guys score on special teams, defense and offensively," Wheeler said. "Overall, we were excited to play, we played together and we were able to go out and get a win. And it's always good when you can score in all three phases of the game."

Wheeler said Mehki Elmore had another strong night offensively, rushing for nearly 150 yards and two touchdowns and that Dakories Moment had an interception return for a touchdown on defense.

The Bears will play at Burleson Centennial at 7 p.m. tomorrow night, and Wheeler said he anticipates a challenging game.

"They run the flexbone, and not a lot of people run that type of offense any more," Wheeler said. "So, it's going to be an adjustment for our kids seeing a lot of spread and one-back, tight end stuff and now we're going to see some three-back sets and a lot of option game."

Brewer's final three games are against the top three teams in district, and Wheeler said he thinks this will be a good measuring stick for his team.

"I think it's a big deal for the kids as far as kind of figuring out where their mindset is and if they're going to come out and fight," Wheeler said. "Are they going to give it everything they've got regardless of who we are lining up against? I'm never really as concerned about who we're playing as opposed to how we play. Are we able to minimize mistakes and get better every time we step out onto the field. That's what's most important."

BHS Volleyball

The Brewer volleyball team came up a little short against Saginaw on Friday night, losing 3-1.

The Lady Bears wrapped up the regular season on Tuesday night against Aledo.

Cross Country

"District was a tough meet with great competition as we expected," Coach Olson said. "The varsity girls' team placed third as a team to advance to the Region I meet."

The Region I meet will be held in Lubbock on Oct. 24-25.

"We had two runners place in the top five, with Aolani Woldai placing fourth and Ki Rendon placing fifth," Olson said.

The Brewer coach said the focus this coming week in practice will be to emulate the conditions her runners will face in Lubbock.

"This week, we will continue to train and prepare for the Region meet," Olson said. "The course at Mae Simmons is a lot like our district course, so hills, long inclines, etc. will be our focus to prepare. The goal is to place in the top four and advance to the state meet."

The Brothers Lubbock - Politicians and Civil War Figures

by Dr. Ken Bridges

Two orphaned brothers headed west in search of adventure and a new life. The story is common in the annals of the frontier. In the case of brothers Francis and Thomas Lubbock of South Carolina, their story would play an important role in Texas history.

Francis Richard Lubbock was born in Beaufort, South Carolina, in 1815 to Dr. Henry and Ann Lubbock. While still an infant, the family moved to Charleston, where younger brother Thomas was born in 1817. Tragedy struck the family in 1829 when their father died. With the family struggling, the 14-year-old Francis quit school to work as a clerk.

In 1835, after the death of their mother, the two brothers moved to New Orleans, where the elder Lubbock worked with a variety of businesses and the 17-year-old Thomas worked as a cotton agent. The revolution erupting in Texas captivated their attention.

Thomas Lubbock and a group of other New Orleans residents organized a unit, the New Orleans Grays, and marched into Texas to support independence. He participated in the Siege of Bexar in late 1835, temporarily wresting San Antonio from Mexican control. After the Texas Revolution, he worked as a businessman and a Texas Ranger.

In 1836, Francis Lubbock followed his brother to Texas and settled in what became Houston and set up a store. He became heavily involved in politics and was appointed as comptroller by Texas President Sam Houston in 1837.

In 1857, he was elected lieutenant governor of the state but lost re-election in 1859 to Ed Clark, a Unionist. Nevertheless, Lubbock was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1860. He and other southern delegates clashed with northern delegates over the conciliatory platform they pushed to preserve the Union. The Democratic Party fractured, and a convention of southern Democrats, chaired by Lubbock, pushed their own candidate, Vice-President John Breckinridge over the national Democratic candidate, Stephen A. Douglas.

In the meantime, Thomas Lubbock was an ardent secessionist and campaigned for years for secession. Once Texas seceded in 1861, he went to Virginia to enlist in the Confederate Army, fighting in the Army of Northern Virginia during the Civil War. He saw many battles and died at a Kentucky hospital in 1862 as a colonel at age 44.

Ed Clark became governor in 1861 after then-Gov. Sam Houston was forced from office. That fall, Lubbock challenged his old foe Clark in the gubernatorial election. Lubbock won by a scant 124-vote margin.

As governor, the Civil War was the focus of Francis Lubbock's administration. He was an outspoken defender of the Confederacy and the draft. He even pushed for drafting non-citizens into the army as well. He attempted to increase trade with Mexico, even offering to trade United States bonds held by Texas and cotton for weapons. Lubbock attempted to spur defense manufacturing in Texas, to little effect. The chaotic whirlwind of Civil War politics consumed his administration, and he declined to run for re-election in 1863.

Lubbock enlisted in the Confederate Army at the age of 46 and was made a lieutenant colonel. He helped organize supplies and troops for the defense of Louisiana during the 1864 Red River campaign and served on the staff of several generals. In August 1864, Lubbock was appointed as a military aide to Confederate President Jefferson Davis. He went to Virginia to update Davis on activities west of the Mississippi River. This voyage was made even more difficult with the Union naval blockade of the South and that Union forces now controlled the Mississippi River, cutting the Confederacy in half. Lubbock spent the next several months in Richmond, watching the Confederacy disintegrate as Union forces encircled the city and laid siege to it.

The Union Army broke through Confederate lines in April 1865, and the Confederate government fled, Lubbock included. Davis, Lubbock, and a number of others headed south in a mad flight to avoid capture and to try to keep their government alive. Several days later, Lubbock was captured in Georgia. He was held at an army prison in Delaware where he awaited his fate. After eight months, he was released as part of an amnesty program and returned to Texas.

In 1876, the Texas legislature organized Lubbock County in West Texas in honor of Thomas Lubbock. Its namesake city was organized a few years later and a century later would grow to a city of more than a quarter of a million residents.

The surviving Lubbock brother, Francis, continued to piece his life back together after the Civil War and Reconstruction and eventually re-entered politics. He served as state treasurer from 1878 to 1891.

Francis Lubbock died quietly at his home in Austin in 1905 at age 89.

What to Do if Your Mortgage Application is Denied

If you dream of homeownership, having your mortgage application denied can be devastating. If this does happen to you, it's important to remember that you're not alone. Thirteen percent of all purchase mortgage applications -- a total of nearly 650,000 -- were denied in 2020, according to federal government data.

Before quickly reapplying for a loan, it's important to first understand the reasons your loan was denied. The lender is required to disclose that information to you within 30 days of its decision. You can also call your lender for further explanation. Having this knowledge will help you work toward building your eligibility for a mortgage.

In some instances, the situation involves a quick fix, such as providing missing or incomplete documentation. However, if the reasons cited for your application denial involve down payment cost, a low credit score, an adverse credit history or a high debt-to-income ratio, here are six steps you can take toward recovery:

1. Consult a Housing Counselor. Consider speaking to a community-based credit counselor or a HUD-certified housing counselor. They can help you create a plan to increase your savings, decrease your debt, improve your credit, access down payment assistance or take advantage of first-time homebuyer programs.

2. Improve Your Credit. In a 2022 Freddie Mac survey of consumers denied a mortgage application in the past four years, three in five cited debt or credit issues as reasons given for their initial denial. If this describes you, take time to improve your credit profile before applying for another loan. Good credit demonstrates responsible money management and gives you more purchasing power, opening doors to better loan terms and products.

3. Pay Down Debt. In the application process, lenders will look at your recurring monthly debts, such as car payments, student loans and credit card loans. By lowering or paying down monthly debts, you can build a positive credit history and lower your debt-to-income ratio. Not sure where to start? Tackle your debt with the highest interest rate first.

4. Obtain Gift Funds. If you're short on money for your down payment, you may be able to use gift funds from a family member to decrease the amount you need to borrow.

5. Find a Co-Signer. A co-signer applies for the loan with you, agreeing to take responsibility for the loan should you default. The co-signer's credit, income and debts will be evaluated to make sure they can assume payments if necessary. In addition to ensuring your co-signer has good credit, you should make sure they are aware of this responsibility and have sufficient income to cover the payment.

6. Look for a Lower-Cost Home. Remember, you should only borrow an amount you feel comfortable repaying. You may need to look for a lower-cost home than you're financially prepared to purchase and maintain.

White Settlement Historical Society and Fort Worth Chapter DAR hold Cemetery Workday

The White Settlement Historical Society hosted a workday Saturday, Oct. 8 at Thompson Public Cemetery. The cemetery, located in Westworth Village off SH-183, is the final resting place for members of many pioneer settler families of White Settlement, River Oaks and Westworth Village.

Members of the Fort Worth Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, who obtained the Texas Historical Marker for the cemetery, and Linda Little, a member of the Cross Timbers Master Naturalists, were also present.

The cemetery workday coincides with the WSHS quarterly (September) meeting and the annual National DAR Day of Service on Oct. 11.
