Player Feature: Western Hills HS Soccer Keeper Angel Ortiz

The Western Hills boys soccer team has emerged as a regular playoff contender in Tarrant County over the last few seasons, and keeper Angel Ortiz is a big part of the reason why.

With a goals against average of less than one per game, Ortiz has kept the Cougars in a lot of close games and wrapped up 2021 with a total of four shut outs.

“Angel is a vocal leader,” coach Matt Collins said. “No one hesitates to follow when he speaks up— mainly because he backs what he says. He is a top-level keeper and a great young man.”

Ortiz was an all-district selection, was undefeated in extra time penalty shootouts and will be a major team leader next season.

“Next year we will heavily rely on him,” Collins said. “We graduated nine seniors and both of our captains. We will be very young and lack some leadership. Angel is the clear-cut choice to fill that void.”

Ortiz, 17, said he was pleased with how his team competed last season, but said there is still room for improvement.

“Last season I think we did the best we could, effort was never a question,” Ortiz said. “The biggest thing last year was experience and for being a young team overall, we did well in my book. The season did not end the way we wanted but we definitely grew from the start to the end.”

Western Hills lost to Midlothian in the bi-district round this past school year, and Ortiz said he is optimistic about this coming season.

“I think things are looking bright for the program,” Ortiz said. “We are looking in top shape and now we are making the weight room a priority as well as moving the ball faster and better. Our knowledge has grown as well, all the young guys grew with the experience we gain last season. Next season the goals are to make it to the playoffs; it’s expected.”

Council Discusses National Flood Insurance Program

The Benbrook city council meeting on June 17 was conducted in person.

Mayor Jerry Dittrich called the meeting to order. An invocation was followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. Time was allowed for citizen comments, but there were none.

The minutes from the council meeting held on June 3 were then approved.

The first item of the evening was the to accept the resignation of Alexander Newman from Place 3 of the Planning and Zoning Commission due to his moving away from Benbrook.

A recommendation was made to accept Newman's resignation, but delay the process of appointing his replacement until a future date. The recommendation was accepted unanimously.

The next item was to discuss the National Flood Insurance Program, Community Rating System-Repetitive Analysis.

FEMA provides the city with a list of repetitive loss properties in the city of Benbrook.

A repetitive loss property is defined by FEMA as an insurable building with two or more claims of more than $1,000 in any 10-year period.

A severe repetitive loss property is defined as having had four or more claims of at least $5,000 or two or more claims that cumulatively exceed the structure's reported value.

Benbrook has six repetitive loss properties and zero severe repetitive loss properties.

The repetitive loss area analysis plan would benefit the city by examining potential mitigation measures for specific repetitive loss areas, and increase the city's credit in the CRS program.

Mitigation actions include continuing with flood insurance outreach programs, promoting flood assistance programs, evaluating and including drainage projects in the

“The goal once we’re in is to go deep in the playoffs and hopefully make it further than previous years. My personal goal is to be the best goalie in my district and be a good leader on and off the field.”

To make the post-season, Ortiz said it will take a couple of things.

“It will take hard work and dedication to claim one of the four spots, especially being in a tough district with good competition that you never really know what will happen,” Ortiz said.

Collins said he has a couple of objectives for Ortiz prior to next year.

“In the off season I want to see Angel continue to grow as a person,” Collins said. “He is one of those guys who I can see doing great things post school and sports. His future is bright. I just want to see him reach his potential.”

capital improvement program (CIP), continuing outreach programs to encourage property owners in flood-prone areas to elevate electrical and mechanical equipment, evaluating the acquisition/demolition program as appropriate, enforcing drainage design standards in new construction and continuing with the storm drainage system evaluation project in the CIP.

No action was taken on the item. Next up was to accept the finance report ending on May 31, 2021. For the general fund, revenues were $664,274 for the month of May, with expenditures totaling $2,382,634. For the year, revenues totaled $19,243,066 with total expenditures of $13,096,737.

The finance report was accepted unanimously. The final agenda item was a proposal to authorize an interlocal agreement with the Fort Worth ISD to provide police officers to participate in the annual School Security Initiative.

City staff requested that council approve the agreement for three, full-time school resource officers. The motion carried unanimously.

The opportunity was provided for informal citizen comments, but there were none. The opportunity was then provided for council member and staff comments, and Renee Franklin congratulated all of the graduating seniors at Benbrook and Western Hills High Schools.

The meeting was then adjourned.

From the Tarrant Area Food Bank

Tarrant Area Food Bank's Mega Mobile Markets to Continue Distributing Food at Herman Clark Stadium

The Tarrant Area Food Bank (TAFB) has extended their agreement with Fort Worth ISD to hold Mega Mobile Markets at Herman Clark Stadium through the month of August. This will allow Tarrant area families to continually receive food assistance from this location, one of TAFB's most consistent distribution locations of the past year.

Mega Mobile Markets are designed to serve all residents of the Tarrant area who are in need of food assistance, as well as anyone whose access to nutritious food has been affected by hardships, such as the COVID-19 pandemic.

TAFB will hold the Mega Mobile Markets on the following Fridays, from 9 a.m. to noon at Herman Clark Stadium- 5201 CA Roberson Blvd, Fort Worth, TX 76119 on the following dates: June 25, July 2, July 9, July 16, July 23, July 30, Aug. 6, Aug. 13, Aug. 20 and Aug. 27.

Food insecurity is still an issue that many families in the Tarrant area are facing. During the pandemic, TAFB saw a 60 percent increase in the number of families who relied on food bank services for the first time. Because of this, many families are still recovering from the effects of COVID-19.

Veterans Day Parade

Battlefront at Home... Saluting our Veterans and First Responders is the theme of this year's Tarrant County Veterans Day Parade to step off on Thursday, Nov. 11, at 11 a.m. Participants will form up in the Fort Worth Panther Island Pavilion parking lot, march down North Forest Park Blvd. along the Clear Fork of the Trinity River and return.

Although months away, The Tarrant County Veterans Council is busy planning for the special event.

A new parade website has launched (fw2021vetsdayparade.org) and the parade committee is soliciting support from individuals and organizations across North Texas for this year's celebration.

Fort Worth's annual Veterans Day parade began as an armistice procession through downtown in 1919 to honor those who had fought in World War I.

In 1945, World War II veteran Raymond Weeks from Birmingham, Ala., sought to expand Armistice Day to salute all veterans. Weeks led a delegation to Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, who supported the idea of a national Veterans Day. Weeks led the first celebration in 1947 and annually until his death in 1985.

Free Medication Disposal Program

The Benbrook Fire Department launched a free Single Use Disposal System (SUDS) program for Benbrook citizens.

Single Use Disposal Systems are a convenient and environmentally-friendly way to properly dispose of unused or expired prescription medications, by providing a 'Take Away Envelope' that can be mailed from the privacy of your own home. The envelopes are then incinerated unopened, keeping personal information confidential, and avoiding contaminating our landfills and drinking water.

To safely dispose of unused or expired prescription medications, simply follow the three-step process:

1. Visit the Benbrook Fire Station (528 Mercedes Street, Benbrook, TX 76126) to pick up a 'Take Away Envelope' (pre-paid postage included). The box of envelopes is available just outside the fire station on the Fire Administration side of the building, accessible to the public 24-hours a day. There is no cost to the citizen.

2. Place unused medications in the envelope and seal it.

3. Drop-off the postage-paid envelope at a post office. The Benbrook Post Office is located at 9415 Benbrook Boulevard. The envelope is then delivered for safe destruction.

American Philosopher, Sidney Mezes by Dr. Ken Bridges

The early 1900s was a formative time for education in Texas. Sidney Mezes, a one-time president of the University of Texas, rose to the forefront to serve as such a leader as well as a diplomat and a thinker. In the process, the son of a pioneer gold prospector in California became one of the most respected philosophers in the nation and a leader in Texas education.

Sidney Edward Mezes was born in September 1863 in Belmont, California, then a tiny village nestled between San Francisco and San Jose in the years after the Gold Rush. His parents were both immigrants, with his father having arrived from Spain and his mother from Italy. His father, Simon M. Mezes, was an attorney who arrived with the early wave of gold prospectors and other fortune-seekers.

His father had helped several Spanish families in the San Francisco area keep the claims on their lands as pressure from settlers and miners as well as various con artists sought to thrust them off their property. In the process, Mezes was able to buy some of this land and set it aside to form what became Redwood City, the county seat of San Mateo County in the 1850s, and for whom a city park is named. This helped provide a comfortable childhood for the future scholar, which included trips to Europe.

He graduated from what was then the University of California in 1884 (now the University of California at Berkeley) with a degree in engineering. After his father's death that year, Mezes took a different path and began studying philosophy. He enrolled at Harvard University in 1889, receiving a second bachelors degree in 1890 and a masters degree in philosophy in 1891. While he was completing his doctorate through Harvard, he spent the 1892-93 school year teaching philosophy at Bryn Mawr College in Pennsylvania. After finishing his Ph.D. in 1893, he spent a year teaching at the University of Chicago.

He was offered an adjunct teaching position at the University of Texas in 1894. In 1898, he took a look at ideas and perceptions of God with The Conception of God. He took on questions of spirituality and the existence of God. At the same time, he touched on ideas of time, memory, and reality. Mezes argued that God lives in an eternal state of the present, with all things happening in one everlasting moment and that time as mortal men understand it, is meaningless to God. "Time is no reality; things seem past and future, and, in a sense, non-existent to us, but in fact are just as genuinely real as the present is," Mezes wrote. "Every reality is eternally real, pastness and futurity are merely illusions."

He became a full-time professor in 1898. In 1901, he wrote an influential work on ethics, titled "Ethics, Descriptive and Explanatory." He earned a promotion to dean in 1902, serving as a philosophy professor simultaneously.

In 1908, Mezes was appointed president of the university. He was the fifth person to hold the position. He was widely respected for his work as a scholar and administrator. The college expanded steadily. He added a new library and a new Department of Economic Geology. Within five years, enrollment expanded 20 percent, from 2,500 students to 3,000.

In 1913, the newly-inaugurated President Woodrow Wilson asked him to become U.S. education commissioner, but he declined. Instead, Mezes decided to take a new position as the fourth president of the City College of New York. He assumed his new post in 1914. He left the university on good terms, and the board of regents asked him his opinions on the direction of the university. He published this as "The Future of the University of Texas in 1914," which helped form a blueprint for expansion.

The same spirit of innovation he brought to UT he brought to CCNY. Here, the college added schools of civil administration, business, education, and engineering, becoming a respected institution in New York.

At the request of Wilson, Mezes became the director of a committee of scholars informally called "The Inquiry" to investigate the causes of the war and to identify and evaluate possible solution to prevent a future war. These suggestions were later formulated into Wilson's Fourteen Points, which he outlined in a speech in January 1918. At the end of the war, Mezes served as a diplomat as part of the American delegation negotiating the Treaty of Versailles, the shape of the peace to come. He wrote a section from a 1921 series of recollections titled What Really Happened at Paris.

By the mid-1920s, Mezes began experiencing serious health problems. The situation became so bad that he retired as the CCNY president in 1927 at the age of 64, having seen enrollment quadruple from 5,200 to more than 20,000. He returned to California; and when his health permitted, he traveled to Europe and different parts of the U. S. The University of Texas honored him with the special title of president emeritus in 1929. He died at his home in Pasadena, California, in 1931.

The university remembered his many contributions and dedicated a new building in his memory in 1953. Mezes Hall today is a multi-use classroom building used by various departments and organizations on campus, including the Texas Politics Project, the Spanish Department, the Government Department, and the European Studies Department.
