A Winning Weekend: Cougars Topple Lions, Bobcats Hammer Bulldogs

The Western Hills football team improved to 5-2 on the season with a 50-36 victory over Castleberry last Thursday night and took one step closer toward securing a playoff spot. The Cougars are now 3-1 in district competition, and coach Blake Moilan said the win over Castleberry was a dog fight.

"We came out a little slow and Castleberry came out of the gates fast," Moilan said. "I think there were almost 50 points scored in the first quarter. I was proud of the kids for not giving up and gritting out a tough win."

Moilan said he had a number of stand-out performances in the game.

"Aaron Martin had a huge momentum changing scoop and score that went 50 yards," Moilan said. "This was a big touchdown, but more importantly changed the momentum of the game. Donte Parker Garrett and D'Shun Hawkins had big games on defense. Tyreke Lewis had 25 Carries for 197 yards and really ran hard when we needed him to, and the Oline came together and played well."

Western Hills will play Lake Worth at 7 p.m. tomorrow night, and Moilan said his team will have their hands full.

"Lake Worth is the top seed in the district," Moilan said. "They have a lot of weapons on offense and do things well. Defensively they have two big defensive ends who disrupt a lot of plays. We will need to come out and play fast and just continue to keep grinding."

Over at Benbrook, the Bobcats picked out performances. up their first win of the season on Friday night, defeating Venus by a score of 49-7. Benbrook overwhelmed the Bulldogs with a strong running attack, as Santiago Merino, Collin Thompson, Jaylon Williams, Brady Gordon and Dominic Nunez combined for 288 yards rushing and six touchdowns. Thompson added a passing touchdown for the Bobcats as well. Benbrook will play at 7 p.m. tomorrow night at Ferris.

On the court, the BMHS volleyball team defeated Western Hills on Friday, and Benbrook coach Frances Davies said game lived up to billing. "The girls played very well," Davies said. "We've been working on speeding up our hitters and the overall pace of our game, and they showed up and we're executing pretty well. They knew going in they really wanted to dominate this game, so where they'd normally be upset if they messed up, they turned around and just kept pushing. It was a fun match for them to play and us (coaches and fans) to watch."

Davies said she had a couple of stand-

"With yet another lineup change, we had a couple step up," Davies said. "Luci Rotman took over the role of lead producer and came out swinging. She had multiple kills, aces, and strong defensive plays. Abbie Miller continues to dominate in the back row and is inching closer and closer to hitting 1000 career digs. She also pulled out multiple aces to help with the win. She really knows her role as team captain and leads beautifully."

Benbrook will play the Young Women's Leadership Academy at 6 p.m. tomorrow night and Davies said she is expecting a tough match.

"It'll be the biggest match of district play," Davies said. "They're currently sitting second and are hungry to keep us from the three-peat, and tying up the standings. We're going to keep pushing the speed, playing smart, but aggressive and staying focused. We will be breaking down film as usual and finding weak spots. We know we have the skill, but the match is going to be a battle of who wants it most."

FWISD Saturday Learning Quest Continues

The Fort Worth ISD Saturday Learning Quest (SLQ) continues strong on Saturday, Oct. 29, with the best targeted accelerated learning in town.

At SLQ, students engage in rigorous, active instruction in literacy and math. The sessions are designed to accelerate academic success, and preliminary data suggest a direct correlation between SLQ participation and academic gains.

Young learners enjoy enrichment opportunities, too, such as classes in art and music, and physical activities.

In addition, the STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) program has been expanded at each campus so more students can participate in these activities.

Free transportation is available for students. Parents are advised to click here for recent bus route changes that may affect students attending SLQ at Briscoe, Greenbriar, Manuel Jara, or Sunrise-McMillan.

Here are the remaining dates for Saturday Learning Quest: • Oct. 29 • Nov. 12 • Dec. 3 • Jan. 7 • Jan. 21 • Feb. 11 • Feb. 25 • March 4 • April 1 • April 22 • May 6.

A total of 24 elementary schools will host Saturday Learning Quest, representing each school pyramid, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Participating Elementaries include: Alice Contreras, Clifford Davis, Diamond Hill, Dolores Huerta, Edward L. Briscoe, George C. Clark, Glen Park, Greenbriar, Harlean Beal, Lowery Road, Manuel Jara, Oakhurst, South Hi Mount, Springdale, Sunrise-McMillan, T.A. Sims, Van Zandt Guinn, W.M. Green, Waverly Park, West Handley, Westcreek, Western Hills, Woodway and Worth Heights.

While students enjoy their Saturday learning, parents can benefit from Parent Academy sessions offered each SLQ day from 8 to 10 a.m. at the following elementary campuses: Western Hills, Oakhurst, Alice Contreras, and Van Zandt Guinn.

For more information about Saturday Learning Quest, visit fwisd.org/SLQ.

Immunization Clinics (continued from page 1)

for Nov. 19 at Arlington Heights HS and Dec. 10 at Eastern Hills HS, both from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., the Your Best Shot immunization clinics will aim to assist families still needing shot records to meet the State’s minimum school vaccination requirements for their students.

The District understands it will take a collaborative effort to make sure students have a safe and productive academic year. We also understand there are exemptions to the State of Texas Health Services immunization requirements.

The Brothers Lubbock - Politicians and Civil War Figures

by Dr. Ken Bridges

Two orphaned brothers headed west in search of adventure and a new life. The story is common in the annals of the frontier. In the case of brothers Francis and Thomas Lubbock of South Carolina, their story would play an important role in Texas history.

Francis Richard Lubbock was born in Beaufort, South Carolina, in 1815 to Dr. Henry and Ann Lubbock. While still an infant, the family moved to Charleston, where younger brother Thomas was born in 1817. Tragedy struck the family in 1829 when their father died. With the family struggling, the 14-year-old Francis quit school to work as a clerk.

In 1835, after the death of their mother, the two brothers moved to New Orleans, where the elder Lubbock worked with a variety of businesses and the 17-year-old Thomas worked as a cotton agent. The revolution erupting in Texas captivated their attention.

Thomas Lubbock and a group of other New Orleans residents organized a unit, the New Orleans Grays, and marched into Texas to support independence. He participated in the Siege of Bexar in late 1835, temporarily wresting San Antonio from Mexican control. After the Texas Revolution, he worked as a businessman and a Texas Ranger.

In 1836, Francis Lubbock followed his brother to Texas and settled in what became Houston and set up a store. He became heavily involved in politics and was appointed as comptroller by Texas President Sam Houston in 1837.

In 1857, he was elected lieutenant governor of the state but lost re-election in 1859 to Ed Clark, a Unionist. Nevertheless, Lubbock was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1860. He and other southern delegates clashed with northern delegates over the conciliatory platform they pushed to preserve the Union. The Democratic Party fractured, and a convention of southern Democrats, chaired by Lubbock, pushed their own candidate, Vice-President John Breckinridge over the national Democratic candidate, Stephen A. Douglas.

In the meantime, Thomas Lubbock was an ardent secessionist and campaigned for years for secession. Once Texas seceded in 1861, he went to Virginia to enlist in the Confederate Army, fighting in the Army of Northern Virginia during the Civil War. He saw many battles and died at a Kentucky hospital in 1862 as a colonel at age 44.

Ed Clark became governor in 1861 after then-Gov. Sam Houston was forced from office. That fall, Lubbock challenged his old foe Clark in the gubernatorial election. Lubbock won by a scant 124-vote margin.

As governor, the Civil War was the focus of Francis Lubbock's administration. He was an outspoken defender of the Confederacy and the draft. He even pushed for drafting non-citizens into the army as well. He attempted to increase trade with Mexico, even offering to trade United States bonds held by Texas and cotton for weapons. Lubbock attempted to spur defense manufacturing in Texas, to little effect. The chaotic whirlwind of Civil War politics consumed his administration, and he declined to run for re-election in 1863.

Lubbock enlisted in the Confederate Army at the age of 46 and was made a lieutenant colonel. He helped organize supplies and troops for the defense of Louisiana during the 1864 Red River campaign and served on the staff of several generals. In August 1864, Lubbock was appointed as a military aide to Confederate President Jefferson Davis. He went to Virginia to update Davis on activities west of the Mississippi River. This voyage was made even more difficult with the Union naval blockade of the South and that Union forces now controlled the Mississippi River, cutting the Confederacy in half. Lubbock spent the next several months in Richmond, watching the Confederacy disintegrate as Union forces encircled the city and laid siege to it.

The Union Army broke through Confederate lines in April 1865, and the Confederate government fled, Lubbock included. Davis, Lubbock, and a number of others headed south in a mad flight to avoid capture and to try to keep their government alive. Several days later, Lubbock was captured in Georgia. He was held at an army prison in Delaware where he awaited his fate. After eight months, he was released as part of an amnesty program and returned to Texas.

In 1876, the Texas legislature organized Lubbock County in West Texas in honor of Thomas Lubbock. Its namesake city was organized a few years later and a century later would grow to a city of more than a quarter of a million residents.

The surviving Lubbock brother, Francis, continued to piece his life back together after the Civil War and Reconstruction and eventually re-entered politics. He served as state treasurer from 1878 to 1891.

Francis Lubbock died quietly at his home in Austin in 1905 at age 89.

What to Do if Your Mortgage Application is Denied

If you dream of homeownership, having your mortgage application denied can be devastating. If this does happen to you, it's important to remember that you're not alone. Thirteen percent of all purchase mortgage applications -- a total of nearly 650,000 -- were denied in 2020, according to federal government data.

Before quickly reapplying for a loan, it's important to first understand the reasons your loan was denied. The lender is required to disclose that information to you within 30 days of its decision. You can also call your lender for further explanation. Having this knowledge will help you work toward building your eligibility for a mortgage.

In some instances, the situation involves a quick fix, such as providing missing or incomplete documentation. However, if the reasons cited for your application denial involve down payment cost, a low credit score, an adverse credit history or a high debt-to-income ratio, here are six steps you can take toward recovery:

1. Consult a Housing Counselor. Consider speaking to a community-based credit counselor or a HUD-certified housing counselor. They can help you create a plan to increase your savings, decrease your debt, improve your credit, access down payment assistance or take advantage of first-time homebuyer programs.

2. Improve Your Credit. In a 2022 Freddie Mac survey of consumers denied a mortgage application in the past four years, three in five cited debt or credit issues as reasons given for their initial denial. If this describes you, take time to improve your credit profile before applying for another loan. Good credit demonstrates responsible money management and gives you more purchasing power, opening doors to better loan terms and products.

3. Pay Down Debt. In the application process, lenders will look at your recurring monthly debts, such as car payments, student loans and credit card loans. By lowering or paying down monthly debts, you can build a positive credit history and lower your debt-to-income ratio. Not sure where to start? Tackle your debt with the highest interest rate first.

4. Obtain Gift Funds. If you're short on money for your down payment, you may be able to use gift funds from a family member to decrease the amount you need to borrow.

5. Find a Co-Signer. A co-signer applies for the loan with you, agreeing to take responsibility for the loan should you default. The co-signer's credit, income and debts will be evaluated to make sure they can assume payments if necessary. In addition to ensuring your co-signer has good credit, you should make sure they are aware of this responsibility and have sufficient income to cover the payment.

6. Look for a Lower-Cost Home. Remember, you should only borrow an amount you feel comfortable repaying. You may need to look for a lower-cost home than you're financially prepared to purchase and maintain.

Phyllis Annette McMinn

Phyllis Annette McMinn passed away Wednesday, Oct. 12, 2022 at the age of 93.

Interment will be at Greenwood Memorial Park. A gathering of friends and family will be held in Nashville at a later date.

For most of her life, Phyllis made her home in River Oaks, TX. She relocated to Nashville, TN in 2013 with her daughter and son-in-law.

Phyllis was a kind, gentle woman who possessed a quiet strength and an artistic talent. She took comfort and meaning from her Christian faith throughout her life.

Phyllis continued to learn and grow through her years and was accepting of everyone. She blessed everyone in her life with her unconditional, modest, and steadfast love.

Phyllis was preceded in death by her husband of 63 years, Grover 'Jack' McMinn; son, Michael McMinn; parents, Ruth and Lloyd Donley; brother, Bob Donley and his wife, Rose.

She is survived by her daughter, Becky Stephens and husband, Paul; granddaughters, Sarah Stephens, Shelley Lancaster and husband, Randall; great-grandchildren, Maxwell and Madeleine Lancaster; nephew, Terry Donley and wife, Rose; and niece, Brenda Donley.

White Settlement Historical Society and Fort Worth Chapter DAR hold Cemetery Workday

The White Settlement Historical Society hosted a workday Saturday, Oct. 8 at Thompson Public Cemetery. The cemetery, located in Westworth Village off SH-183, is the final resting place for members of many pioneer settler families of White Settlement, River Oaks and Westworth Village.

Members of the Fort Worth Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, who obtained the Texas Historical Marker for the cemetery, and Linda Little, a member of the Cross Timbers Master Naturalists, were also present.

The cemetery workday coincides with the WSHS quarterly (September) meeting and the annual National DAR Day of Service on Oct. 11.
